Roundtopia

TRAIL DETAILS:
Discipline: Trail / XC - Cross Country / Enduro - Endurance
Number of Trails: 70
Total Miles of Trails: 20+ miles
Difficulty: Beginner to Intermediate
Trail types: Single-track, Double-track and Fire Roads
Access: 7 Ravena Drive, Round Top

The Round Top Trail Network, or Roundtopia, consists of over 20 miles of mountain bike trails located on private land aimed at serving the local community. The interconnected network can be accessed by the public at a number of locations including: Roundhouse Resort, Glen Falls House, Winter Clove Inn, Crystal Brook Resort and Round Mountain Brauhaus. The trails are a nice mix of single-track, double-track, and fire roads that are groomed for fat biking in the winter months.

Glen Falls House provides access to the easiest terrain in the Round Top area. Warp Speed Loop and Blue Vail. There are three waterfalls on this property. Glen Falls, Branik Vail and the Ice Box.

Follow the Air Trail towards Winter Clove and you will pass another beautiful trail side waterfall, owned by Crystal Brook Resort. If you turn onto Palermo Path, you will wind up at the Mountain Brauhaus, an authentic German Brauhaus featuring an outdoor deck.

The Winter Clove trails have two sections: The lower section features a fish pond, a beautiful waterfall, and a covered bridge. The upper section has some nice climbs such as the Lower Moonshine Ridge Trail and Switchback Hill.

Tannersville-Hathaway Trail System

TRAIL DETAILS:
Discipline: Trail / XC - Cross Country / Enduro - Endurance
Number of Trails: 21
Total Miles of Trails: 4+ miles
Difficulty: All Abilities
Trail types: Single-track
Access: Route 25, Tannersville, 1.5 miles from Route 23A

The Tannersville-Hathaway Trail System was developed by the Hunter Foundation and includes a four-mile trail that starts on Route 25 at the parking lot, 1.5 miles from the Stonewall Shops. It twists, bends, and curves through backcountry trails suitable for beginner mountain bikers to seasoned riders.

Miles of professionally designed and constructed trails especially built for mountain biking, the Tannersville-Hathaway Trail System is beautifully integrated with the stunning natural landscape nestled in the Catskill Park Wilderness. It is ideal for beginners to feel comfortable on real mountain bike trails while at the same time providing entertainment for a seasoned rider.

Closest to the Route 23 parking area, you will find the section known as the "FUN Loops." These trails offer some of the least difficult riding on the ridge. The FUN Loops gently climb and flow along some small streams and hidden rock walls and through deep forests. Entry-level riders tend to spend most of their time riding and exploring this area.

For those who would like to experience a bit more pitch and push, the "Levitate" trail will elevate you to the top of the ridge and open the door for many miles of outback, flowy, single-track fun. Each trail has a unique feel and flow, but most offer endless riding features such as optional jumps and kicks.

5 Huckleberry Trail

TRAIL DETAILS:
- Discipline: XC – Cross Country
- Number of Trails: 1
- Total Miles of Trails: 2.7 miles
- Difficulty: Beginner/Easy
- Access: 27 Lake Road, Tannersville

The Huckleberry Trail follows the old Huckleberry Railroad that ran from the Catskill Mountain House west through Stamford. This 2.7-mile stretch starts on Clum Hill Road, across from Cortina Valley, and ends on Bloomer Road. This mostly shaded trail is ideally suited for bicycles or foot traffic. It meanders through the wilderness, over wooden bridges, and across only one main road (South Main Street).

The view consists of wooded areas, streams, a golf course, residential homes, and a lake. Make a pit stop along the trail to enjoy fishing in the streams or skipping rocks along the water. About two-thirds of the way you will find a playground near Rip Van Winkle Lake. The park includes a skate park, handball court, volleyball court and basketball court.

6 The Windham Multi-Use Path

TRAIL DETAILS:

- Number of Trails: 1
- Total Miles of Trails: 2.1 miles
- Difficulty: Beginner/Easy
- Trail types: Multi-use Trail
- Access: 4982 NY-23, Windham

The Windham Multi-Use Path is designed with the concept to connect the residential, business and activity centers of Windham, Hensonville and Maplecrest along the Batavia Kill corridor. The path provides a means to safely and easily recreate and travel by bicycle or foot in the summer, and cross-country ski or snowshoe in the winter. The Windham Path is an extremely popular path for leisurely biking and walking, and is suitable for all ages.

The Windham Path consists of a 1.5-mile loop accessed by a parking area on Route 23, 1/2 mile east of the Route 296 intersection) and a .5 mile loop that connects the business area of South Street and Route 296. The Windham Path provides the only public access to the Batavia Kill Stream in Windham and meanders through meadows and woodlands and access bridges providing fantastic views of the Great Northern Catskills. Make a point to take a break during your ride or walk to enjoy the gem of the Windham Path – the magnificent and picturesque covered bridge that spans the Batavia Kill Stream.

7 Colonial Trail System

TRAIL DETAILS:
- Discipline: Trail / XC – Cross Country / Enduro - Endurance
- Number of Trails: 8
- Total Miles of Trails: 5.9 miles
- Difficulty: All Abilities; expect roots and rocks
- Trail types: Single-track
- Access: Via Allen Lane, the Hathaway Trail System, the Huckleberry Trail System, or the Colonial Country Club across from the sixth hole
- Trails not to be missed: Narnia – a mostly man-made trail with berms that allow for a flowy and fun ride that’s been called “nature’s rollercoaster with Daytona berms.”

The Colonial Trail System is the newest mountain biking trail network in Greene County and was developed in partnership with private individuals and the Hunter Foundation. Connect easily from the Huckleberry Trail and the Hathaway Trail System and ride the network enduro-style or cross country. The Colonial Trails feature natural and man-made routes, including true rake and switchbacks, there's nothing like that first sip of a cold beer or bite of a burger. After riding the Colonial Trail System or the Tannersville-Hathaway Trail system, head to the village of Tannersville for a bite to eat at Last Chance Antiques and Cheese Cafe. The menu offers burgers, sandwiches, nachos, and more. For one of the “Hudson Valley’s Best Burgers” head to Mama’s Boy Burgers and don’t forget the french fries and frozen custard when you order! If you’re riding around Round Top on the Roundtopia Trails, head to Nussy’s Bier Garten or Mountain Brauhaus for a trailside pint of German beer and authentic Bavarian cuisine. Whatever you ride, Greene County’s restaurants and breweries are the perfect places to end your mountain biking adventure on a high note.
